

STARS OF THE WEEK

KS2:

Jamie Sunners for his fantastic reintegration
PE - Luke Harrison for excellent effort

KS3:

Computing - Alfie McMurrie for a brilliant story board
Science - Drew Hughes for excellent practical skills
PE - Ava McIntyre for excellent effort
Maths - Matthew McClune for excellent effort

KS4:

Maths - Hollie Miller for achieving full marks on her entry level papers
Computing - Fabian Kirkwood for fantastic multimedia planning
Hair and Beauty - Reece Smallwood for always pushing himself
Sport - Jordan Martin for outstanding effort
Personal Development - Fabian Kirkwood for excellent effort
Science - Kyle Potter For constantly working hard
Maths - Zane Kent for excellent effort
Art - Libby Rawcliffe for amazing drawing
English - Sonney OBrien for excellent extended writing
Food - Kallon Wishart Working well to complete coursework
Art - Kyle Potter for always working hard
Construction - Siana Morrison for producing distinction level joints

GOOD NEWS STORIES

The three KS3 classes have worked really hard to figure out who the person was who murdered the Mayor of Gressington. Alfie McMurrie worked incredibly hard last week to raise his total words read from 2,559 to 6,701! Such admirable dedication shown 😊

We need stickers! Please send in any spare Aldi stickers... we have only a few weeks left!

This week we see three STAFF STAR of the week nominations!!

K. Davies for her determination and aspiration for all students. A. Shinks for his ongoing support and commitment to Hair and Beauty. B. Carter for creating a calm and beautiful learning environment.

Value of the week:

We are determined to get it right; when we haven't, we reflect on our actions and repair relationships

Assembly Topic of the week:	Personal Development Focus:	Special Days:
CELEBRATION	Respect for others	13 th – 20 th Sukkot 14 th Battle of Hastings 16 th World Food Day 17 th UN National Day for the eradication of poverty

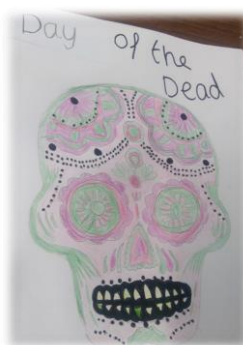

This week we had some amazing 'Random acts of kindness' from staff to staff.

Thanks to Mrs Bowness for setting up cakes and hot drinks for staff on Thursday We will have a cake sale on Friday for #wearitpink!

Many thanks to altudrama for their fantastic, thought-provoking performance. The show was entertaining and hard-hitting, and alerted students to the dangers out there on-line. We gave it five stars!

KS3 really enjoyed designing their Day of the Dead art pieces which were inspired by the meaningful Mexican holiday, Día de Muertos, which is a time for remembering and celebrating our loved ones who have passed

We will be holding our Celebration Assembly on Friday the 25th of October to celebrate our successes from this half term.

Have a great week ahead