

STARS OF THE WEEK

GOOD NEWS STORIES

Hair and Beauty

Sophie Tymoszycki – excellent effort and attitude to learning

Child Development

Daisy Murray – a positive start to lessons

DT

Robert Lashley and Joel Keegan for going above and beyond with their practical coursework. They are pushing their practical capabilities to their limit.

English

Rebecca Maxwell for working independently
Libby Rawcliff for arriving on time with a great attitude and effort.

Accelerated reader

Layton Smith for concentrating on his reading and taking his book home

PE

KS2 - Aaron Powell - for showing resilience and a determination to succeed.

KS3- Sean Pollard - for outstanding effort and attitude during both his PE lessons and while representing Meadow Park football team.

KS4 - Joel Keegan - for showing a consistent mature and positive attitude during both his sports lessons and while representing Meadow Park Football team.

Maths

Joel Keegan for excellent attitude during maths lessons and Libby Rawcliffe for really trying to improve her behaviour during lessons.

PD

Aaron Smith for outstanding effort.

Art

Codie Sussock for completing a fantastic piece of Art work.

Megan Melling – fantastic watercolour skills

Food Technology

Rob Lashley – fantastic attitude and a beautiful apricot meringue pie

Science

KS3 - Aaron Smith for his excellent practical skills, polite manners and mature attitude in lessons.

KS4 - Michael McVerry for always being polite and respectful and for the excellent effort he shows every lesson.

KS3 pupils have written some fantastic poetry this week.

Staff Star of the week:

Mrs Walsh would like to nominate Ms Cleary for always being professional, approachable, friendly and positive.

Date w / c Monday	Assembly topic of the Week	Value of the Week	PD focus
27 / 01 / 20	Holocaust	We speak up when something's not right.	Persecution
03 / 02 / 20	Helping others	We help and guide others in making the right choices.	Charity
10 / 02 / 20	Celebration Assembly	We resolve problems patiently; we're not afraid to make tough decisions.	Managing Conflict

Class Aspire took part in a well-being morning on Tuesday with our therapist, Ange Courtman. The session involved breakfast, peer massage, yoga and meditation. All pupils really enjoyed the experience and the behaviour for the rest of the day was impeccable.

Ms Clarke would like to nominate Sophie Tymoszycki for attendance - not only has her attendance improved, it's good to see her looking happy and more settled around school.

Mrs Fishwick would like to nominate Markus Kerr for improved attendance last week and Megan Melling for her fantastic work ethic.

Miss Macey would like to nominate Kevin Atkinson. Kevin has shown a tremendous level of independence and motivation to challenge himself with his maths work. He has been offering to support other students with their work throughout the week.

Ms Kelly would like to nominate Reem Etoum forward for impeccable manners and being a very tidy and grateful person.

Well done to everybody who worked hard to achieve points in our positive attitude incentive – some lucky group will be getting a ‘Maccies’