

STARS OF THE WEEK

HOPE

Riley for being a very positive role model and supporting staff with a difficult situation on the playground.

Cee-Jay Shelley for improving his behaviour massively throughout the week and engaging in all lessons.

ENGLISH

KS4 - Jake Yates for trying his very best in class and using his creativity skills to support his learning in English.

KS3 - Tyler Fulton, for making lots of effort and behaving impeccably.

Accelerated reader - Carl Westhead - for making an improved effort with his reading.

MATHS

Georgia Mallon for excellent effort.

PERSONAL DEVELOPMENT

Paul Moran, always arrives prompt to lessons and try's hard.

CHILD DEVELOPMENT

Child Development - completes all task to the best of her ability.

HAIR & BEAUTY

Frankie Weaver, much more settled and working hard in class with both her academic studies and her attitude.

SCIENCE

KS3 - Ava McIntyre for her independent practical skills and for always challenging herself to complete higher level work.

KS4 - kyle Potter for always giving 100 per cent effort in lessons.

ART

Summer Ventre & Ellie McKenna for outstanding effort.

Paul Moran for fantastic work in preparation for his GCSE Art & Design exam.

DESIGN TECHNOLOGY

Ellis Williams for an excellent attitude.

Jack Thomas and Sonny O'Brien for an outstanding effort in food and nutrition.

Preparing pizza dough and presenting food to a high standard.

Paul Moran for a solid effort to produce some fantastic out of the ordinary art work.

Alfie Davern and Mason Hill for consistently demonstrating a mature attitude towards their food and nutrition coursework.

ACORNS

Ethan McDermott for much improved behaviour.

COURAGE

Tayla -Jo Castley. Tayla has proved she can achieve targets set and strive to be the best person she could possibly be. Brandon Hutchinson has also worked really hard in all subjects, especially Science.

GOOD NEWS STORIES

English:

A massive well done to the 17 students who gained a pass in the Functional Skills Level 1 exam. You should be proud of yourselves and your achievement.

Art & Design

Design Technology

Ms McNamara would like to celebrate the great work on Romeo and Juliet that Harrison Melbourne and Ben Imoukedmen have been inspired to write this week. They both produced a fabulous piece of written work using persuasive language and expression.

She would also like to congratulate Ben on having had a brilliant week in school, he has settled quickly into his work and deserves a 'pat on the back' for perseverance and determination this week.

A big WELL DONE to both boys.

STAFF STAR OF THE WEEK

Miss Cleary would like to nominate our new site staff supervisor Mr S Fearon for the hard work and great job he has done on our cabins and woodland area. He has transformed our outside space!